

PARISH NEWS – March 15, 2012

Weekday eucharist: Wednesday, 7:15 a.m.

An invitation to give Easter flowers

If you would like to give Easter flowers in memory of, or in thanksgiving for, loved ones please email the names to the church office goodshepherdwabab@comcast.net by March 31.

The names will appear in the service bulletins on Easter Eve and Easter Day. Checks should be made out to Parish of the Good Shepherd with the memo area marked "Easter flowers". If you have any questions please call Lynette in the church office at 617-244-4028.

Lenten Forum Series continues: The Gospel of John

This Lent we have been meditating the riches and mysteries of the Fourth Gospel and exploring how John differs from the other three gospels. Note: no forum on March 18. We meet again March 25.

Forming New Habits of Giving

This past Sunday it was nice to see that the Food Pantry bin in the Common Room had donations in it - thank you, and keep them coming! The need is great. Add a few of the following items to your shopping list: peanut butter and jam, tuna, chili or other meals in a can (other items also welcome). Also, bringing a few things in each week is a concrete (and easy) way to get children involved in remembering the needs of others and helping, in a small but significant way, to meet them.

Socks for the homeless

During the month of March, Good Shepherd is collecting new, white socks in adult sizes for Boston Healthcare for the Homeless Program. Drop them in the box in the Common Room by March 25.

There are two kinds of crucifers in the world:

1) cruciferous vegetables (broccoli, cauliflower) and
2) the person who carries the cross at the head of a liturgical procession. We at Good Shepherd are looking for a few more of the latter. At our parish we are blessed to have many people who serve in our worship and help us all turn our minds God-ward. From time to time we need to replenish our ranks. Vivi Leavy, our Head of Acolytes, is seeking a few adults (both youth and adults serve as crucifer) who are interested in being trained for this ministry, and who would be available to serve about once every six weeks. Speak to Vivi, Truman or Regina if you are interested.

Good Shepherd will host the annual Charles River

Deanery Youth Collaborative (CRDYC) overnight retreat for Middle School youth in 6th, 7th, & 8th grade Friday March 23 through Saturday, March 24. Middle School youth from across the Charles River Deanery will join us at 4:00 Friday, March 23 for some fun, prayer, and fellowship. The retreat concludes at about 10:00 AM Saturday, March 24. Kids may attend for the evening portion only, if desired. A contribution of $20 is asked from all participants. We will need some adults to assist as chaperones. Please let Mary Ann know if you are available.

Final Teaching Block begins April 15 and ends on Sunday May 27. We need a teacher for the 3rd through 5th grade class and for the middle school class (6th through 8th grades). The curriculum is terrific -- and so are the kids! Please speak with Patty Morgan or any member of the Christian Education Committee, or Mary Ann Stewart.

Lenten blessings,

Mary Ann.
