But, Church School Continues...

All summer long, for the first time ever, we will have church school! Mad science will be taking over Church School! Children and youth will be making goo, walking on water, watching baffling experiments, and much more. They will walk away amazed, excited, and knowing a little more about both the world and God. Each Sunday we'll look at a Bible story through the eyes of a mad scientist, which will help us understand Jesus in a whole new way.

Please Note: The Rev. Jeff Mello, Rector of St. Paul's Church in Brookline, is on call for pastoral emergencies through Friday, June 10; Jeff's number is on the church voicemail.
