

Parish of the Good Shepherd, Waban

Paid Sunday School Teacher Job Description

2017

Thriving Episcopal parish in Newton seeks enthusiastic and organized teachers for their weekly children's Sunday School Program. Two teachers needed for 1st-2nd grade and 3rd-5th grade classes. Lesson plans and activity materials are provided. The position's primary responsibility is conducting a 45-minute lesson every Sunday, followed by attendance at the second-half of the church service, and a brief appearance at the subsequent coffee hour. Sunday hours are 9:30-11:30am.

Other responsibilities include a brief weekly telephone check-in with the Assistant Rector and an hour of at-home lesson review/preparation. Participation in special events throughout the year (e.g., Christmas Pageant, occasional evening service, etc.) will be coordinated on an event-by-event basis based on availability and will be paid hourly.

Ideal applicants have experience with elementary-aged children and knowledge of the Christian faith. Applicants with teaching experience and/or Episcopal training will be given preference. $60 per week ($21/hour for additional events).

Please send a cover letter and resume to the Rev'd Daniel Bell at ce@goodshepherdnewton.org.
